

WEST LOTHIAN GOLF CLUB CODE OF CONDUCT FOR CHILDREN (Junior: under 12 years)

Your safety and wellbeing whilst playing golf and involved in any golf related activity at, or through, West Lothian Golf Club is very important to us. We have a responsibility and a duty of care for you. As a junior member you have rights that we will do our very best to support and uphold, but you also have responsibilities.

As a junior member of West Lothian Golf Club you are expected to abide by the following code of conduct.

You should:

- Support and contribute to an environment free of fear, bullying and harassment;
- Respect differences – cultural, racial, gender, sexuality and physical;
- Treat organisers, coaches, volunteers and all golf club members with respect;
- Respect the golf course, clubhouse and your own equipment;
- Demonstrate fair play and apply these standards both on and off the course;
- Treat others as you would wish to be treated yourself; and
- Tell the Junior Convenor, volunteer(s), member of Caimin's Team and/or your parent/caregiver if you experience any problems on or around the golf course.

You should not take part in any poor behaviour which includes:

- Using foul and abusive language; and
- Name-calling and insulting other people.

If the Code of Conduct is not observed this will result in follow-up action from the Junior Convenor. West Lothian Golf Club Council will be involved if situations remain ongoing or serious in nature and this could result in loss of membership.
